

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICE

Adrian GOICEA

Supervisory Board Member

CNTEE Transelectrica SA, managed under two-tier system

With vast experience in power engineering as of 2006 Mr. Adrian Goicea is the Director of a consultancy company in the energy sector, and he conducted various projects for Romania during his professional career, among which the mammoth project of Iberdrola Renewables (1200 de MW), as well as other development projects for wind power in Romania.

In 2001 - 2003 Mr. Adrian Goicea was Director General of OPCOM SA, a subsidiary of CNTEE Transelectrica SA, promoting this company in the international associations of power exchanges and energy market operators, APEX (worldwide) and EUROPEX (Europe-wide), contributing to higher renown of OPCOM to the level of the most praised entities in this domain. In 1979 - 1985 Mr. Adrian Goicea was active in diplomacy as Diplomat Secretary II, being responsible of economic and consular issues in relation with the Korean RPD.

Mr. Adrian Goicea is an economics graduate, having attended the courses of the Economic Science Academy (1972-1977), having also participated to specific training courses in accounting and renewable energy.