

Biographical notice

Cătălin NIȚU

DIRECTORATE Chairman

National Power Grid Company Transelectrica S.A. - company managed under two-tier system

With a wide experience of over 25 years in information and communications technology, Mr. Cătălin Nițu has held the position of Department Manager within the Information and Communications Technology Division of CNTEE Transelectrica SA since 2017, where he carried out coordination and control activities of IT and communications projects within the Company, in substations and other entities managed by system operator. Also, from this position, Mr. Nițu has ensured the monitoring of the maintenance of the Company's communications infrastructure.

From 1991 to 2016, Mr. Cătălin Nițu held several positions within the Ministry of Internal Affairs, the Information and Communications Technology Directorate General.

Mr. Cătălin Nițu is a graduate of the Faculty of Electronics and Communications of the Polytechnic University of Bucharest (1997). Since 2009, he holds a Master's Degree in Information technology security (Faculty of Military Electronic and Information Systems - Military Technical Academy). Also, Mr. Nițu attended several postgraduate courses of specialisation and improvement in management and communications and information technology.