

Biographical Note

Cătălin - Constantin NADOLU

Directorate Member

Transelectrica –Company managed under a two tier system

Mr. Cătălin - Constantin Nadolu joined the Directorate of National Power Transmission Company Transelectrica on June 25, 2021, and he had carried on his four-year mandate since October 3, 2024.

Licenced in legal science, with a large professional experience in local and central public administration, Mr. Cătălin - Constantin Nadolu has held since 2005 leading positions in institutions which he has successfully coordinated while establishing the strategies and monitoring the implementation processes, continuously analyzing their fields of importance like operational and financial performances, marketing strategy and technological development.

Before being a member of the Directorate of National Power Transmission Company Transelectrica, Mr. Cătălin - Constantin Nadolu has held the position of general manager of Electricity Transmission Network Maintenance Services Company SMART, thus improving his experience and managerial competence through optimizing and improving activities in areas of strategic importance in the energy sector, such as investment, technical or maintenance of electricity transmission networks.

Mr. Cătălin - Constantin Nadolu is a graduate of Law Faculty within the Police Academy „Al. I. Cuza” and of Master’s program European Administrative Studies of Public Administration Faculty within the National School of Politics and Administrative Studies, strengthening his theoretical foundations in the field of public administration and strategic management.

Moreover, his participation in various professional development courses in areas like public purchase, risk management and project management shows his engagement towards continuous improvement and the compliance with the new requirements of a dynamic and competitive environment.